

Inspired luxury gifts for men

Partners looking to present their better halves with gifts that are original and out of the ordinary will find exclusive designs and unique treasures from some of our finest silversmiths and furniture makers at this year's Inspired exhibition. Held at London's Goldsmiths' Centre from May 3rd – 6th, 2017 the exhibition will show new hand crafted pieces by contemporary artisans, all of which will be available to purchase at the show.

For those with limitless budgets, hand crafted boxes from Halstock are gifts that will last a lifetime. Halstock's exquisite Watch Winder, Shot and Humidor boxes* are future family heirlooms. Smaller budgets, befitting more contemporary design-led gifts, will be best spent on silver. Rebecca Joselyn's Jerrycan hip flask (£870) is just the thing to fill with a favourite tippie!

Watch Winder box & Shotbox by Halstock, silver Jerrycan hip flask by Rebecca Joselyn £870.

About the Halstock Shotbox:

*Our luxury 'shot box' offers the most luxurious of shoots, the perfect way to experience a fine taste of sloe gin as well as the key tradition of selecting your peg number found at the bottom of your cup. A high gloss, beautifully detailed box containing 9 shining silver goblets. Intended for use when out shooting, the inside of the lid reveals a detailed scene of two pheasants taking flight in intricate marquetry. The box is made from solid American Black Walnut & transformed into something to reflect nature's beauty. The exterior of the box is veneered in a beautiful quarter book-matched burr walnut, flowing over the lid of the box and down all four faces.

With a turn of the key, the lid opens revealing the real wow factor of this piece. Your eyes are immediately drawn to the bright light reflecting from the numbered silver cups, contrasting against the book-matched walnut burr. Each cup location detailed in suede. This piece took the maker 400 hours to create.
